

CONSTITUTION

Coding for a Change

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this organization is Coding for a Change.

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE

The mission of Coding for a Change is to provide financial assistance to individuals affected by Alzheimer's disease, including support for medical treatment, medication, and quality-of-life experiences for patients and their families.

Assistance is available to any qualifying individual on equal terms, regardless of their relationship to the organization. Applications for help are processed anonymously. No applicant shall be required to disclose their identity to receive assistance, and no applicant shall be excluded based on any affiliation with the organization.

This organization is organized only for charitable purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No part of the activities or earnings of this organization shall provide special or preferential benefit to any private individual, officer, director, or shareholder beyond the program services available to all qualifying individuals on equal terms.

ARTICLE III: NONPROFIT STATUS

Coding for a Change is a nonprofit corporation formed under the laws of the State of Utah. The organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted by a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization.

ARTICLE IV: GOVERNANCE

The organization shall be governed by a Board of Directors. The Board shall oversee the affairs of the organization, set policy, and ensure the mission is carried out. The specific duties, structure, and procedures of the Board are set forth in the Bylaws.

The organization shall have officers as defined in the Bylaws. Officers shall carry out the daily operations of the organization under the direction of the Board.

ARTICLE V: AMENDMENTS

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the full Board of Directors. Proposed amendments must be shared with all Board members in writing at least fourteen days before the vote.

No amendment shall be made that conflicts with the requirements of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the laws of the State of Utah.

ARTICLE VI: DISSOLUTION

If the organization is dissolved, all remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more organizations that qualify as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No assets shall be distributed to any officer, director, or private individual.

Adopted: May 2026
